

Bakti Tours & Travel

welcomes you to Sabah,
"The Land Below The Wind."

Welcome to Sabah

Sabah boasts Mt Kinabalu, South East Asia's highest peak and the Kinabalu Park - a paradise for naturalists and bird-watchers. Hike on any of the mountain trails through primeval jungle, but that's not all. Perhaps an adventurous trip to the Sepilok Orang Utan Sanctuary - a breeding ground, an observation station for the nearly extinct "Wildman of Borneo" in its natural habitat will make your journey complete.

City Tour

S

Tour No 1 (2 hours)

Leave your hotel on a sightseeing tour which takes you through the commercial centre on to the Signal Hill where you will have a panoramic view of the city and its surrounding seas. Then we move on through the Likas Residential area to the Chinese Temple. On the return journey, a short stop at the Sabah State Mosque, Prince Philip Park, Tanjung Aru Beach Hotel and finally the Sabah Museum concludes the tour.

(Note : Museum and State Mosque closed on Fridays)

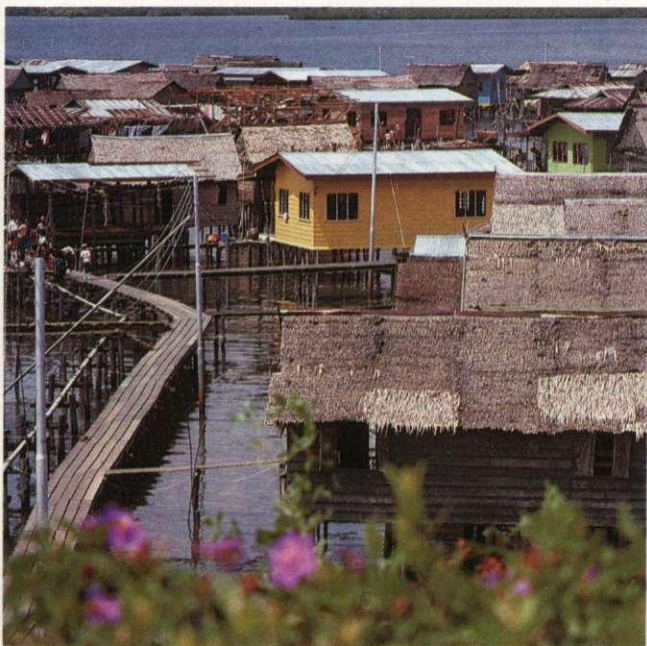

City and Countryside Tour

Tour No 2 (4½ hours)

After completing your city tour, you proceed to the town of Tuaran, some 21 miles away, which takes you through scenic countryside with lush green padi fields, scattered villages and rubber estates.

The return journey sees a stop at Kampong Mengkabong, a Bajau fisherman's village made up of thatched roof houses on stilts clustered together. Sampans form the main means of transport here. Also, a visit to a local pottery.

Kota Belud Sunday Market Tour

Tour No 3 (6 hours)

Kota Belud is the home of the famous Bajaus - cowboys of the east - for on big occasions many of them wear colourful costumes and ride colourful clothed ponies. Kota Belud is 48 miles away from Kota Kinablu and is situated right in front of the majestic Mount Kinabalu. The drive to this rustic town takes you through small towns and villages and some beautiful countryside scenes.

Ladies wearing sarongs or the traditional black skirts set up vegetable stalls adjacent to betel-chewing Bajau women selling tobacco. Colourful wares like handmade baskets, hats, bead work and food covers can be seen mingled with their daily produced. Men are seen auctioning buffaloes and occasionally selling gongs.

Kinabalu National Park

Tour No 4 (Full day)

From Kota Kinabalu, a drive to the Kinabalu Park, 94 km away, will take you over ridges of the Crocker Range overlooking beautiful valleys. A cool temperature welcomes you at the Kinabalu Park, 1,560 m above sea level.

The Park is a paradise for naturalists, birdwatchers, mountaineers and nature lovers. Take a walk along any of the trails and see for yourself the different variety of orchids and plants available here. This is where Sabah's flora is at its best - diverse, unique, unexploited and preserved.

Lunch is included.

Kinabalu Park Package Tour

Tour No 5 (2 days / 1 night)

Day 1 Itinerary same as Tour No 4, with an over-night stay in an alpine style cottage at the Park or at Hotel Perkasa Mt Kinabalu. Evening is free for you to explore the Park or attend a slide show (enquire for time and availability)

Day 2 After breakfast, the morning is free for you to enjoy more of nature. The mountain can be seen on a clear day.

Tour package includes 2 way transfers to the park, 1 breakfast and 1 night's accomodation at the Park.

Mt Kinabalu Trek Tour

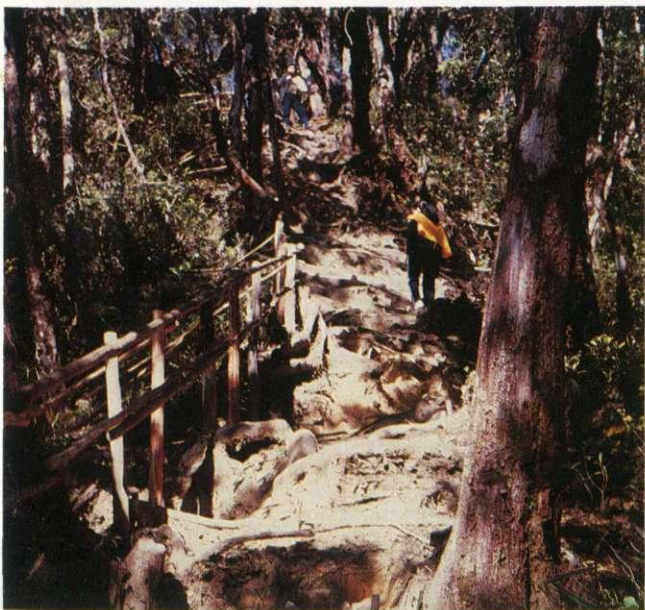

Tour No 6 (3 days / 2 nights)

Day 1 Itinerary same as Tour No 5.

Day 2 Commence climb early in the morning to 11,000 ft and overnight at the Huts.

Day 3 Rise as early as 3 am to begin your climb to the peak - 13,455 ft or 4,101 m. Descend the same day and transfer to Kota Kinabalu.

(Climb may be accomplished in 2 days/1 night - means a dawn transfer up the Park and commence climbing the same day.)

Extension Tour to Poring Hot Spring

Tour No 7

43.5 km away from the Park is the Poring Hot Springs where you may dip into hot sulphur baths or cool spring water.

The journey takes approximately 2 hours on a gravel road passing through the Ranau town - copper town of Sabah, and more tropical jungle.

Tour package includes, breakfast at the Park.

Coral Island Excursion

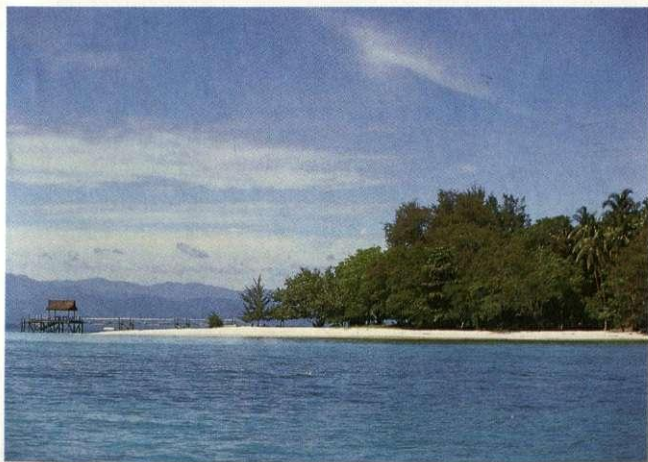

Tour No 8

Five shady islands form the Tunku Abdul Rahman Park. They are Pulau Sapi, Pulau Mamutik, Pulau Manukan, Pulau Sulug and the greater part of Pulau Gaya and the surrounding seas.

The reefs around the islands are abundant with hard and soft corals which attracts a wide variety of marine creatures native to the South China Sea and tropical waters. Clown fish, Lion fish, Sea Turtles, large clams and Cone shells are sighted commonly in these waters.

You may snorkel, swim, trek jungle trails, collect sea shells or sunbathe on our sandy beaches.

Packed lunch and light refreshments are provided.

Tenom Tour

Tour No 9 (Full day)

To the South of Kota Kinabalu, 95 km away, lies the Murut native land called Tenom. This tour is made all more interesting as we shall travel in a little coach by rail.

This tour is specially designed for those who love the countryside. Tour commences with a 1¼ hour drive to Beaufort - "the town on stilts". From Beaufort, a 1½ hours railcar ride takes you to Tenom sampling the "old Borneo way of life"

On arrival at Tenom, you may explore this fascinating countrytown. Return to Kota Kinabalu in the afternoon.

Lunch is included.

Sandakan/Orang Utan Sanctuary Tour

Tour No 10 (Full day)

Take an early flight from Kota Kinabalu to Sandakan - a modern city sprawled along the edge of the sea.

On arrival, visit the world's largest orang utan sanctuary which offers a unique chance to see the animals at close range. One cannot guarantee anything in this natural world with absolute certainty but we shall time our arrival at the sanctuary during the feeding time - so with any luck we shall be assured of having some close encounters.

In the afternoon, we shall visit the Forestry Exhibition Centre which shows a vast collection of forestry products and hunting weapons.

Lastly a tour of the city and its surrounding concludes the tour. Take an evening flight back to Kota Kinabalu.

Lunch is included.

Special Interests

1. Rungus Longhouse

From Kota Kinabalu, a 4 hours drive up the coast through picturesque mountain country and tropical forest brings one to Kudat, the heart of the Rungus territory. The Rungus are known for their firm adherence to their traditional ways, stunning native dress and fine handicrafts. On Sundays, visit the "tamu" or market at Sequati.

2. Papar/Penampang Kampong Scenic Tour

This is designed for those who wish to see more of our countryside and traditional way of life. Visit the "House of Skulls" - a relic of the head hunting days before enrouting to Papar, with a stop at Pantai Manis Beach.

3. Tambunan/Keningau

Leave Kota Kinabalu for a 2 hrs drive to Tambunan - a peaceful, tranquil town deep in the valley of the Crocker Range. Look out for the traditional bamboo houses along the way. Onward to Keningau with a stopover at a local hotel. On the return journey you may take the railcar from Tenom or retrace your steps to Kota Kinabalu.
